ACADEMY

WHAT ARE YOU DOING THIS SUMMER?

SUMMER LEADERSHIP AND CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT ACADEMY

July 20-July 26 2014

What are you doing this summer to stand out, to get ahead, to make yourself different, better?

Do you have what it takes, to join us for one week of intense leadership training?

The United States Marine Corps Summer Leadership and Character Development Academy (SLCDA) is a one-week course aboard Marine Corps Base Quantico, VA for America's top high school students.

The competitive applicant must:

- Have completed their sophomore year of high school
- Have participated in athletic, leadership, and service-oriented activities
- Possess strong moral and ethical standards

It starts with checking-in at the National Museum of the Marine Corps July 20th 2014 and finishes six days later. During those seven days, you will experience the following:

- Ethics, education, and leadership training
- Team building, team development, and leadership practical application exercises at Marine Corps Base Quantico
- Teamwork, leadership, and a community service project
- A visit to Washington DC
- Distinguished guest speakers
